

For parents at home,

Thank you for educating your children about our nation and its heroes. Whether you live with a wounded hero or not, it is so important to understand others and teach your children about our Veterans and servicemembers.

I hope you find this kit helpful and use it as a tool to engage your children. My book, Hero At Home, is another resource and companion to these activities you can share with your children! Thank you for being a Hero for our Heroes!

Sincerely,
Sarah Verardo
CEO of The Independence Fund
